

COMMISSION ACTIONS April 18-19, 2016

ACCREDITED STATUS

Accredited Status is granted to institutions that are in Substantive Compliance with the TRACS Standards. Substantive Compliance indicates that the Accreditation Commission has determined that an institution's level of compliance is sufficient to warrant accreditation and that the institution can come into full compliance with all the Accreditation Standards within a maximum of two years. Initial accreditation is for a period of five years. For Reaffirmation, each institution must complete a successful self-study, host an on-site team evaluation, respond to the team recommendations, and appear before the Accreditation Commission by April 2021.

The following institutions were granted Accredited Status by the TRACS Accreditation Commission after completing a successful self-study and being evaluated by an on-site evaluation team:

Nehemiah Gateway University (Rruga Nehemia, 7304 Bucimas, Pogradec, Albania)

At the meeting on April 19, 2016, the TRACS Accreditation Commission voted to grant Nehemiah Gateway University Accredited status as a Category III institution. The Commission action requires that the institution submit a Progress Report by August 15, 2016, addressing any remaining recommendations and suggestions of the visiting team. The institution must provide evidence of coming into compliance with all recommendations by August 15, 2017, and provide documentation supporting this for presentation at the fall 2017 Accreditation Commission meeting.

Oikos University (7850 Edgewater Drive, Oakland, CA 94621)

At the meeting on April 19, 2016, the TRACS Accreditation Commission voted to grant Oikos University Accredited status as a Category IV institution, with one condition. The Commission action requires that the institution submit a Progress Report by August 15, 2016, addressing the one condition and any remaining recommendations and suggestions of the visiting team. The institution must provide evidence of coming into compliance with all recommendations by February 15, 2018, and provide documentation supporting this for presentation at the spring 2018 Accreditation Commission meeting.
