

PIU Presidential Search, August 9, 2023

The PIU Board announces that they have established a Presidential search committee and are seeking a permanent president. The application deadline is Wednesday, August 23. Please submit full resume with at least 3 references.

We are seeking a candidate who, ideally:

- Is on island in Guam;
- Has no requirement for on campus housing;
- Has raised support and has a network behind them;
- Is very current with all forms of modern communication (including but not exclusive to e-mail, Whatsapp, Facebook, texting, cell phone contact) and uses them well for close coordination with staff, students, board and PIU supporters;
- Values teamwork and transparency with PIU staff and Board;
- Is able to work well across denominational lines;
- Has a heart and passion for the students and churches and communities of the islands;
- Is a continuous learner;
- Is fully committed to the vision of PIU to be a transformational place for Jesus Christ and his kingdom.
- Has at least a Master's degree (ideally a doctorate or working towards that goal)